

Continuing the seemingly endless and endlessly seamy saga of beer in the wild west.

And So...

the First Annual Lamb Feed and Ewe-Neek Glass Party at Kate and Keith Roberts' House on May 15th was a hoot. Lamb on a spit was provided by the Roberts', with help from their family and friends (and Scott too...). The glassware contest had 20 entries, with Fred Howard winning the prize for finest glassware, Laurie Pedrick for most original glassware and Dan Bailey for most-in-need-of-new glassware. Sierra Wine and Spirits hosted a tasting of 7 different Ambers at 8pm. The first place pick was MacTarnihan's, with Alley Cat coming in a close second. There were 17 people participating in the blind tasting, including 6 BJCP certified beer judges. Thanks again to Keith and Kate and family for a great time!

Coming Up!

Bring beer if you like, to the Baldwin's....

.....for the annual Frank 'n' Stein meeting.

Tom will providing 18 different home-brewed beers from his own personal stash, and the club will provide wursts of various types. You will provide something to go along with such fare (salad, dessert, bread, vegetables, etc.).

There will be a mandatory donation of $5 a head for club members, and $10 a head for non-members. This will cover Tom's cost for the beer.

Any questions? 'Call Tom.....
