Last Month

Badley Meadlicious Meading

Those of you that missed the mead meading missed another great gathering at the Badley house. A great variety of fermented beverages passed through the lips and down the welcome throats of all in attendance. A festive atmosphere appropriately settled in for the duration of the evening.

Thanks again to Ron and Yen for graciously hosting. I am looking forward to next December's meading already.

This Month

Mac & Susan's Carribbean Dreams
Rescheduled from last year's time slot, Mac and Susan will be hosting the WZZ crew for the January gathering. Bring your great beer and food as always. Mac promises that he will get off work in time to be there by 9 or so, but rest assured that Susan will be there much earlier.

Gratuitous Space Filler

Feel free to submit something for the newsletter so I don't have to ramble on endlessly about nothing of any real value whatsoever just to make the white spaces less white in the Washoe Zephyr Zymurgists newsletter. (That was a pretty long run-on sentence, so the font size will only be 16 instead of 24 now.)
