Last Month

Chili Cook-off at John & Scottie's

Unfortunately, your editor was out of town during this event, so only second-hand information is available. From what I heard, the chili's were great, the salsas were saucy, and the beverages flowed freely. Thanks to John & Scottie for hosting again!

This Month

Firefest at Jeff & Karen's (Note the new location!)

Jeff & Karen are back on track to host in April after a goof-up in scheduling last year. Fire that guy! (No, please, do.) They have new digs, thus we will have to determine the fire-tolerance of their neighbors.

As always, Jeff and Karen will be whipping up some real goodies in the kitchen. So bring something scrumptious along with your homebrew to complement the event. See everyone there next week!

Bubbling to the top

For those of you in the Beer Judge Certification Program, you can vote for me (John Tull) to be the Intermountain Regional Representative for a few more weeks. In order to do so, you need to get on the internet with your BJCP ID and password. You would have received these with your original paperwork from the BJCP, unless you've been in the program as long as Ron Badley, Rob Bates, Tom Young, etc.

Go to the link below (do it right now!), login, and you can then vote. If you have no idea what your login/password are, you can click the "What's my password?" link to have it emailed to your address on file. You can also contact Jamil Zainasheff at jamil@mrmalty.com who can look up both your login id and your password. Obviously, you are a BJCP member only if you have taken the exam, and nobody forgets the exam!
