Ch-ch-ch-changes

The below is partially true as I, JT, have not yet been fully liberated of my editorial responsibilities. Text is written by Mike McCowen, incoming editor.

Yes, the winds of change are upon us, in more ways than one. First off, there is a new editor for our WZZ newsletter. You guessed it, it's me, Mike, y'know... Rob's little helper on Friday, not John Tull, who will still be helping behind the scenes. Hopefully the changes you see will work for everyone. I will be attempting to make the newsletter as enjoyable as John has but as Rob and John have both mentioned we don't have a lot of club member participation. Let's all try to rectify that, pictures, ideas, articles, I'll try if you will. Thanks again John, we'll see how it goes.

Last Month

The annual Meading at Badley's

Since I wasn't able to attend the December meeting I am taking any information from second or third hand stories. I don't even have much 2nd or 3rd hand info but from what I did hear, lots of good beer, good people and music on an antique turntable with real vinyl. Sorry I missed it.

This Month

Caribbean Dreams

There will be some changes in our meeting structure starting with the January meeting at Mac and Susan's. We will have a 'real' meeting before the standard meeting/party. Please be at the meeting at 6 pm if you would like to participate in club Business, otherwise show up any time after 7 pm. We would like to get together in this way in future meetings and this one will be a little shorter so we can share our ideas about what we want this club to be about now and in the future.

There will also be a monthly tasting starting with the January meeting. Each month there will be a different style for the tastings. In the future if there is time to brew the monthly tasting we can enjoy our club version along with any commercial samples that members bring to the meeting. The January style will be Christmas/Holiday specialty beers, please bring any that you would like to share with others.

Remember, for the tasting, which is club business, you will need to arrive at 6 pm. Examples of this months style are as follows:

From BJCP, Anchor Our Special Ale, Harpoon Winter Warmer, Weyerbacher Winter Ale, Goose Island Christmas Ale, North Coast Wintertime Ale, Great Lakes Christmas Ale, Samuel Adams Winter Lager or anything you made, of course, in that style, local breweries, Holiday beers, etc.

Unfortunately I have been unable to get this newsletter the way I would have liked the first time so I'm relying on John again to insert this text into his newsletter format, you may not see much of a change yet. I'll give it a try next month and I apologize for this being so late, I will attempt to have these out by the first of the month.

Prost. See you all at the January meeting.
