Autumn Revelry

Those who braved a chilly November evening to come to the Reno Homebrewer for last month's WZZ meeting were greeted by a roaring fire in Rob's ceramic pot bellied stove. That, along with a couple electric space heaters (and of course hot food and free flowing libations) kept attendees warm and comfortable.

There was no real theme for this meeting and not much in the way of club business was discussed; it was more of an informal gathering to meet & greet, mix & mingle and wine & dine.

Thanks to Rob for opening the doors to the shop for all the hungry and thirsty WZZ kids.

Recipe of the Month

The Washoe Zephyr Zymurgists have spoken! Or rather, they haven't. Your humble editor thought this would be a good idea for a column to include in the newsletter, but there has been no response at all, so in the future this space will be put to other, perhaps more fruitful, uses.

Badley Meading

It's time once again to show off the fruits of your mead, beer, cider or wine making talents at Ron Badley's annual Holiday Meading on Saturday December 11 at 6 PM. Ron is hosting at his new house at 610 Nixon Avenue in the heart of old Reno. As usual it is requested that you bring a dish to share with all along with your favorite libation. For questions or directions call Ron at 846-4009

Upcoming meetings:

January - Susan & Mac's
Carribean Dreams on 1/8/11

February - Food and beer
pairing at Chris Whitbeck's
- date TBD

March - Chili Cook-off ?

April - Firefest ( Anyone interested hosting this? )

2011 AHA National Homebrew Competition

It's time to think about what you might want to brew up to enter in next year's premier homebrew event. The winners will be announced at the National Homebrewers Conference to be held June 16 - 18 in San Diego, CA. For complete details on entering or to register online go to <http://www.homebrewersassociation.org/pages/competitions/national-homebrew-competition>. WZZ members have won awards in the past ; let's show them what Nevada brewers are made of!
